Program Description

Synergistic, Inc. is a 501(C)(3) non-profit organization incorporated in the District of Columbia. Since 1993, Synergistic's mission has been to enhance the lives of disadvantaged youth and young adults in the D.C. Metropolitan Area, specifically in Southeast D.C. Our three goals are to (1) improve academic outcomes for teens and young adults; (2) increase employment opportunities available to teens and young adults; and, (3) help individuals move toward self-sufficiency by reducing violent behavior/attitudes and decreasing alcohol, tobacco, and other drug use.

Our research-based curriculum uses sound instructional methods to improve a youth's academic achievement in math, reading, science, social studies and all other subject matter high school students must master for graduation. Our curriculum and methods engage students; teaches skills and competencies; emphasizes literature, reading, and writing across content areas; builds student competence and confidence; teaches students at their appropriate instructional level; highlights connections to real world applications; are tailored to a student's learning style, and develops academic skill in relationship to social skills. Our curriculum adheres to the DC Office of the State Superintendent of Education learning standards.
